Neurophys Fun for PGY3s!
Practicing the Art of EMG/NCS!

Grand Rounds
All 10 of our PGY1 neurology residents hanging out!
Kudos to Ryan Donaghy (PGY4), Dan Jia (fellow), Naomi Ayele (PGY2), and Hannah Kim (PGY2) for handling an incredibly busy consult week with unrelenting positivity and humor while delivering exceptional care to the patients, maintaining enthusiasm for learning, and communicating with other services with kindness and professionalism - Dr. Shetty (Attending)

Kudos to Yan Yan Xiong (epilepsy fellow) for taking the time to review EEGs with us during neurophys! You are so helpful and a great teacher! - Jyoti Grewal (PGY3)

Kudos to Lauren Previch (stroke fellow) for being so helpful during busy weeks on stroke consults! - Jyoti Grewal (PGY4)

Kudos to Courtney Raab (PGY2) for absolutely crushing a 1 AM stroke code with a clear LVO syndrome, TNK under 30, and puncture in the IR suite under 90 min (in the middle of the night). The patient made a significant recovery after successful EVT. Can't run a stroke code much better than that and an excellent patient outcome to beat! - Martin Bauknight (PGY4)

Kudos to Meghana Shownkeen (PGY2) and Justin Saunders (Psychiatry Intern) for a great week on the stroke service! In addition to managing strokes, they navigated several complex social scenarios surrounding patients and stayed positive and enthusiastic - Sheng Tang (PGY4)

Kudos to Sofia Chernet (PGY2) for doing an awesome job on her 3 weeks on the stroke service. She is careful, thoughtful, reliable, and always has the patient’s best interests at heart - Sheng Tang (PGY4)

Kudos to Ryan Donaghy (PGY4) and Brian Liu (PGY4) for recreating a deleted consults list and dealing with a most unexpected setback - All residents

Kudos to Courtney Raab (PGY2) for enthusiastically helping out on stroke, including coming in on a weekend day before her night shift week - Sheng Tang (PGY4) and Sofia Chernet (PGY2)

Kudos to Dina Ghandour (PGY4) for helping out on a weekend with a large and sick stroke list, including facilitating an unexpected thrombectomy on an inpatient! - Sheng Tang (PGY4)

Kudos to Ryan Donaghy (PGY4) for being an incredible senior and friend on consults and general service- always taking the time to answer questions with patience and kindness - Jamie Cooper (PGY2)
Milestones

Congratulations to Tulsi Malavia (PGY3) and her husband Atharva Desphande on their wedding!

Academic Achievements

Congrats to Jyoti Grewal (PGY3) for receiving the AAN Scholarship to the Fall Conference!
